Meet and greet with celebrity vet this Thursday

Locals are invited to “come and say g’day” to Channel 7 personality, Dr Harry Cooper, when he visits Hastings Co-op’s Wauchope IGA this Thursday between 11am and 4pm.

The well-known vet is attending the supermarket as an ambassador of PURINA SUPERCOAT and will be available for a chat and photographs.

The event will also double as a cake stall and BBQ fundraiser for Riding for the Disabled (RDA).

Dr Harry combines his passion for animals and his love for educating Australians on pet care and nutrition in his role on Channel 7’s Better Homes and Gardens, making house calls and giving people advice on caring for, and feeding, their pets.

He formerly appeared on Burke’s Backyard and had a program called Harry’s Practice.

Visitors are asked not to bring pets.
