Countdown to celebration of local producers

Wauchope Showground will come alive with fun, food and live entertainment this Friday for Hastings Co-op Twilight Tastings.

A record number of exhibitors and entertainment are planned for the family friendly event, which runs from 5pm to 9pm, and is now in it's fourth year.

With entry only $5 for adults and under 18's free, your tastebuds are bound to be tempted by everything from fudge, honey, pizza and salamis to cheese, strawberries, a lions club BBQ and award winning, well-known spirits and boutique beers.

"It's all about celebrating beer, wine, spirits and food in a relaxed environment where suppliers can share their products and locals can try something new," Hastings Co-op's liquor manager Lisa Atkins said.

"As well as being able to sample premium beer, wine spirits and food there will be children's entertainment, farmers market stalls, live music from Troy White Music School and rising star Chris Rose and Wauchope Show Society will be operating a bar.

"More than 700 people attended last year and we are aiming for bigger and better this year.

"Hastings Co-op is passionate about fresh, local produce and supporting local suppliers wherever possible, so Twilight Tastings is a perfect fit and we invite all our valued customers to come along,"
